Council Report

July 31, 2009

Tapawingo Park was enjoyed by thousands of people during River Fest (July 11th), Dancing in the Streets (July 18th), and the Cruise N Concert for Kids (July 25th).

Summer Sports Programs and the Playground Program have been completed. Thanks to the West Lafayette Community School Corporation for their continuing cooperation with using their facilities for many programs, including the annual Kiddie Carnival (held in the Cumberland School gym on July 6th).

In Cumberland Park, the Coed Softball Tournament has started, the Men's Softball Tournament is about to begin, and recreational youth soccer begins in a couple weeks.

The last day to enjoy the Municipal Pool this summer is August 16th. Swim lessons were enjoyed by more than 1,446 youngsters this year.

Global Fest will be September 5th at Morton Community Center.

Art on the Wabash will be September 20th in Tapawingo Park.

The Sagamore West Farmers Market is open every Wednesday in Cumberland Park, 3-6:30 pm. Sixty-two vendor spaces are now rented at the market.

The next Park Board meeting is August 17th at 4:30 pm in City Hall.
