

STATE OF INDIANA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
INDIANAPOLIS

Executive Order

PROCLAMATION

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY COME, GREETINGS:

- WHEREAS, Ronald Reagan entered politics when our country was thirsty for change. As the President of the United States, his dedication to freedom and democracy changed the world; and
- WHEREAS, in his support for limited government involvement in the lives of citizens, he was a true optimist whose ability to view the positive in every situation was admirable and who reinforced our confidence that our nation could triumph over any hardship that came our way; and
- WHEREAS, throughout his lifetime of public service, Ronald Reagan was convinced that the American way of life, the ideals we stand for and what our country represents in the international community was worth protecting. He was devoted to the prosperity and success of the United States and those who would inherit it, once saying, "Each generation sees farther than the generation that preceded it because it stands on the shoulders of that generation"; and
- WHEREAS, we celebrate Ronald Reagan's incredible legacy and his spirit of optimism. Our nation is stronger because of him and we continue to see a bright future ahead. We proudly stand on his shoulders and the extraordinary work he did for the state and country he loved;
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mitchell E. Daniels, Jr., Governor of the State of Indiana, do hereby proclaim February 6, 2011 as

RONALD REAGAN DAY IN CELEBRATION OF HIS 100TH BIRTHDAY

in the State of Indiana, and invite all citizens to duly note this occasion.

In Testimony Whereof, I hereto set my hand and cause to be affixed the Great Seal of State. Done at the City of Indianapolis, this 14th day of December in the year of our Lord 2010 and of the Independence of the United States 234.

BY THE GOVERNOR:

M E Daniels, Jr.
