Sixty-four Vehicles Vandalized During the Night

West Lafayette, Indiana, November 17, 2014

The West Lafayette Police Department was contacted at approximately 11:50PM last night by a subject who witnessed another subject slash a vehicle tire near the intersection of Columbia and Chauncey Ave. Once officers arrived in the area, they were able to follow the footprints left in the snow leading from multiple damaged vehicles (slashed tires) right to the suspect.

The suspect was identified as Theophilus Johnson, age 19, from West Lafayette. Johnson was arrested for Level 6 Felony Mischief as well as Public Intoxication. A knife was also recovered from the scene by officers. At the time the report was completed, officers had searched the area and documented sixty-four vehicles with flat tires.

Anyone with further information or that needs to have damage to their vehicle documented is asked to contact the West Lafayette Police Department at (765) 775-5200.
