Press Release

February 13, 2018
West Lafayette, Indiana

The West Lafayette Police Department has received a new bullet and stab resistant vest from Spikes K9 Fund and donor Anderson Cooper from CNN for our K9 Barry. K9 Officer Elizabeth Romstadt is grateful that Barry will be protected and prepared during their shift.

The cost of the K9 Storm Vest is $2,500.00, they are custom fit and lightweight for the K9, and guaranteed for life.

Spikes K9 Fund is a nationally known 501c3 non-profit organization founded by James Hatch, a retired Navy Special Warfare Operator. If you would like to know more about the fund or donate, go to spikesk9fund.org.

The West Lafayette Police Department would like to thank all those that support our K9s who protect and serve all of us.
