Work Progresses on 'Letting People In' Mural

You are invited to cover:

What: 'Letting People In' progress

When: Ongoing through October

Where: 304 West State St.

Background: A mural entitled 'Letting People In,' is being painted by Alex Monik on the boards covering the vacant Where Else and Fresh Mix building windows at 304 West State Street. The project was proposed by the West Lafayette Public Arts Team and is presented with funding from the taxpayers of West Lafayette through the West Lafayette Redevelopment Commission.

The mural as a whole will be broken up into individual pieces. The artist has chosen to tell viewers a story about how letting positive people into your life can change you.
