WLPD Hires Two New Officers

May 15, 2018

At 0900 hrs today, WLPD will swear in two new police officers; Jayden Fackelman and Nadine Tillawi. The addition of these officers will bring the department to near capacity with 49 officers. A brief bio of the officers is below.

Jayden Fackelman:

Officer Fackelman is 22 years of age and is from Tippecanoe County. Fackelman graduated from Harrison High School and went on to Purdue University. While at Purdue University, Fackelman served as a WLPD intern. He received his BA from Purdue University in 2017.

Nadine Tillawi:

Officer Tillawi is originally from Michigan, but completed her studies at Indiana State University. While at ISU, Tiwalli served as an intern with the Indiana State Parole. Tillawi received her BA from ISU in 2016.

Please join us at the West Lafayette Morton Community Center this morning at 0900 hrs for an opportunity to meet our two newest officers.
